Description

This is an older camp, but has new corrals thanks to the Back Country Horsemen from Cave Junction. The camp is right on the banks of Briggs Creek. There are several trails in the area - Briggs Creek Trail (#1132), Dutchy Creek Trail (#1146), Taylor Creek Trail (#1142), Onion Way Trail (#1281) and Secret Way Trail (#1282). For the more adventuresome you can ride all the way to the Illinois River over a series of trails. (Many of these trails are also open to motorcycles during part of the year.)
