Stasea and Sabina Martin are chairing this fun no host outing again this year. You can ride in the Redwoods and on the beach. Or if and when you get tired of riding, you can venture out down town for more fun stuff to do, such as a movie, shopping, museums, and maybe a yard sale or two!

Note: You do have to trailer out each time from the campground to the trailheads. If your going or are a new member to this weekend campout, contact Stasea at 541-613-4410 or Sabina 541-621-8773 and let them know you are attending, they can give some info of the area trails. You can also find a National Park Service map of trails you can ride while camping there on the JCHA website under "Camps & Trails."

For reservations, YOU must call Konnie Orman at 707-464-4434. There is no limit to the number that can attend. Cost for the group camping area is $15 per horse/rider per night. You could also stay at a motel and board your horse at Orman Ranch for $12.00 per day.

And... local horse club The Northwest Trail Riders are holding their annual Poker Ride on Saturday, Sept 2nd at Pala Ranch Staging Area. 1st riders out at 10:00am, last out at 11:00am, $15.00 for non members including lunch! Hope you can make this ride.

WANTED: TRAIL LEADERS!!

Sadly there hasn't been any club trail rides for quite some time now. We have several new members wanting to ride with other like folks and learn where to ride that's safe and enjoyable.

So, if you're planning a ride somewhere and want some company feel free to reach out to other members or announce it at a membership meeting.

And for those of you wanting to ride and explore, you can do the same!

JCHA Event Planning:

Crescent City Labor Day Campout - Sept 1 - 4: Sabina and Stasea Martin are chairing this No Host campout again this year. They will be in camp site #25 at Ormans Ranch, if you would like information on where to ride or if you would like to ride with them. They don't have any scheduled rides but try to ride new ones and will have a potluck. For club members attending it was suggested they wear club apparel so any new members can find and meet. Those attending need to make their own reservations at Orman's Campground. Call Sabina and Stacy to let them know you are coming. The NW Trail riders plan a poker ride on Saturday, Sept 2nd. Cost is $15 for nonmembers and lunch is provided. Our JCHA Website has information on Orman's and a map of the Mill Creek trails system.

End of the Summer Lingo/Poker Ride - Sept. 23: Judy Klein and Dana Bartlett are chairing this event at Willow Prairie Horse Camp. Judy will be having individual sealed poker cards in hanging baskets on designated trees along the trail this year. Each rider will "draw" a card for each poker hand they have at each basket. They will then bring all sealed envelopes back to have them opened at camp. This will save on having to have so many volunteers out on the trail with decks of cards. There will be a spaghetti potluck, a motion was made and 2nd that the club provide the spaghetti with Bruce & Karen House cooking it and Dana Bartlett to furnish home made spaghetti sauce, please bring a side to go with it. Campground is full but check recreation.gov for any cancellations or openings.

Fall Gymkhana— Oct 1: Debbie Davenport reported that everything is ready. Event is being held at Salt Creek Arena, Eagle Point and that the Eagle Point Equestrian Team's food trailer will be available for food orders most of the day .

Christmas Party - Dec 9: Karen Matheny reported that the room at the Eagles Lodge is reserved. There is no band booked yet but Debbie Davenport suggested a DJ/Karaoke to play music thru out the night for possibly $75.00 for the evening. A motion was made and 2nd that Debbie will find out more info on the DJ/Karaoke or a band and report back.

Old Business:

Secretary Vacancy: Sabina Martin has taken on new hours at her work and will no longer be able to attend meetings to record meeting minutes. Karen House reported there is several members interested in filling the secretary position for the remainder of the year. At the last board meeting, there wasn't a quorum of officers in attendance to appoint a new secretary so it has been delayed till the September board meeting.

St Jude Ride Recap: Debbie Davenport & Colleen Martin-Low. Debbie reported the collected amount of $3,910.00 this year! The money has been sent in and the awards ordered, they should arrive by the Sept meeting for everyone who participated to pick up. Debbie thanked Colleen for overseeing the registration table and collecting ride donations. Colleen thanked several club riders for marking the 2.5 hour trail route, and Leann Quint for helping at the registration table. The taco fest potluck was a hit! Phyllis Pfaff mentioned there is a new camp host at Willow Prairie, her first name is Kaylee, she rides a large black & white Paint horse and will be around camp 5 days a week! Please welcome her when you meet her.

Lily Glen Campout Recap: Dawn DeVlaeminck, Bruce & Karen House and Candy Harvey chaired this event this year. There were 61 riders this year with a profit of $1,070.23. Friday's Gymkhana was well attended. The event winners are posted on the club web page. A nice lady drove into camp and wanted to volunteer and meet new horse people, her name is Diane Gorman. She helped out on the raffle/silent auction tables and at the last trail trial obstacle. Thanks to Diane, participants, all the volunteers, those who donated items, and to the Horse Blanket for donations of the trail trial awards. A big thanks to Jaspers and Diner 62 for donating gift cards to our silent auction fundraiser. When you go to their establishments, please thank them for supporting JCHA!

Chairman for Ta-Ta Trot Benefit Horse Show: No one has come forward to chair this fundraiser so it was motioned and 2nd to cancel it this year.

New Business: Guest Nicki Pretti told about the charity event: Ride 4 Veterans Gymkhana, Sept 16 at Brushriders Arena.
