They are going to work on a travel management plan, including issues with volunteerism. She noted the agreed issue that more signage is needed on trails stating which mode of travel the trail is designated. BLM is working on getting a chain saw cert course. Taylor Creek trail area was burned last summer, good time to work on trails, redefine loops, etc. BCH and Josephine Posse are going to work on Sam Brown Horse Camp next year. FS purchased all the poles and hardware to repair corrals.

JCHA Event Planning:

Christmas Party – Scheduled for December 8 at the Eagle’s Lodge. Mike Brons, a one-man band, is coming to play. Need to have paid reservations in by Dec 3.

Old Business:

Ta-Ta Trot Show – Stasea said it was a huge success. 93 exhibitors, 84 horses. Total profit was $2,973.60, of which $885 was donations/sponsors. Received a letter from Riding Beyond thanking us for letting them have a booth there. Discussed how to make donations. Beth Damon said she would make up the difference to $3,000 and proposed we give Riding Beyond and Asante Mammogram each $1,000 and the club keep $1,000. Motion was made and approved.

Apparel Order– The apparel order is open and needs to be turned in by the December meeting. Beth Damon said she would purchase one of each size in the gold, so the club could have them on hand for the parade.

Announcement- Dana Bartlett thanked the group for all the help and caring so much. Members recently brought them hay to help feed their horses. The club has given her a lot of hope to keep her and the girls riding.

New Business:

PCTA/OET – Karen said he had received the renewals to these organizations. Motion was made and approved to rejoin PCTA for $100 donation and OET membership of $35.

2019 Calendar of Events Draft – The 2018 calendar was used as a template for the 2019 with a few changes. Moving the April gymkhana to June, no Quinn Meadows campout, move Lingo Poker Ride to August and possibly new place, have another gymkhana in September. New member, Kimberly Adamic, offered her restaurant, The Homestead Pub in Rogue River, for the 2019 Christmas party. The full calendar will be in the newsletter and voted on at the December meeting.

Other news – Junior member, Kali Nascimento has been selected to go on an east coast scholastic trip next June because of her good grades and mature attitude. She has to raise money for the trip, so she is selling First Aid kits and chocolates. She talked about the trip and asked members if they would like to purchase. Motion was made and approved for the club to purchase 2 of the $30 kits and give as door prizes at the Christmas Party.

December meeting – At the beginning of this year we had to change the December date due to the IOOF Hall being used for the toy drive. Well, that is not happening now, so we can meet the normal 2nd Wednesday, Dec 12th. Motion was made and approved to change to the normal date.

Announcement – Beth Damon said the EDCC is on Facebook and you can check to see where quarantines or infectious diseases are breaking out in the US.

Drawings: Door prize winners were Beth Damon, Karen House and Meloney Robles. The Buckaroo Drawing worth $20, name drawn was Christine Karas, not present so next month will be $40.
